

EDUCATION AND AWARENESS

HOW TO OBTAIN EDUCATION MATERIALS IN LANGUAGES OTHER THAN ENGLISH AND FRENCH?

If you are an athlete, a national anti-doping education officer, or a person who requires any educational materials in your respective language please contact your NADO or RADO (national or regional anti-doping organization) directly.

- If you do not have their contact information, you can contact iNADO: the Institute of National Anti-Doping Organizations who should be able to provide answers and the proper contact information: info@inado.org
- You can also contact your regional WADA office by sending an email to info@wada-ama.org. There are WADA offices in Europe, Asia/Oceania, Africa and Latin America. WADA should also be able to provide you with answers and the proper contact information.
- If you still are unable to find your NADO or RADO contact information, contact Eriketti Margetti at eriketti.margetti@triathlon.org and World Triathlon will assist you.

ADEL FOR ALL

WADA's Anti-Doping E-Learning Platform has been revamped and updated as of January 1 2021.

The anti-doping e-learning platform (ADEL) offers access to all topics related to clean sport and anti-doping. It offers courses for athletes, coaches, doctors, administrators and anyone interested in learning more about anti-doping and protecting the values of clean sport.

Everyone, athletes and their parents and their support team, administrator, physicians etc. is welcome and encouraged to register to ADEL and to follow the various anti-doping education modules offered.
