PRINCIPLES OF RESTARTING THE OLYMPIC QUALIFICATION FOR THE RESCHEDULED TOKYO 2020 OLYMPIC GAMES

1. Keep the same principles of the existing qualification by the quotas earned for NOCs via the various pathways:
   a. Mixed Relay Olympic Qualification Ranking
   b. Individual Olympic Qualification Ranking
   c. Mixed Relay Olympic Qualification Event
   d. Host Country
   e. World Ranking (New Flag)
   f. Tripartite Invitations

2. All scores to remain in the World Ranking and Olympic Qualification Ranking prior to 16 March 2020, except for the 2020 Mooloolaba ITU Triathlon World Cup.

3. Olympic Qualification will be restarted when all potential eligible athletes for the Olympic Games (exact date of the new re-start and finish of the Olympic Qualification to be determined at a later stage):
   a. have sufficient access to training opportunities prior to the competitions.
   b. are allowed to travel to any country where events are held.

4. Three missing Continental Championships – Africa, Asia, Oceania – may be held during or prior to the restarted Olympic Qualification period, but only in cases where the principle #3. can be fulfilled within the given Continent.

5. In the event that Continental Championships are not possible to be held prior to the end of the new Olympic Qualification period, the results from the previous Continental Championships may be considered, even those held before the start of the original Olympic Qualification period.

6. All Continental Championships already counted in the Olympic Qualification will remain as a scoring event, no matter if new Continental Championships are held during the new Olympic Qualification period.

7. The new Olympic Qualification period will end when a similar number and category of events can be included as were postponed between March and May 2020.

8. World Ranking for all purposes (including the Olympic Qualification - New Flag) to be resumed at the same time as the restarting of the Olympic Qualification.

9. Olympic Qualification Rankings to be resumed at the same time as the restart of the Olympic Qualification, except if any of the three missing Continental Championships are held prior to the restart of the Olympic Qualification.
